

Megan Atkinson

Pickering, Ontario

(647) 779-1761 Megan.rachel.atkinson@gmail.com

Objective

To use my skills of sculpting, painting, and product knowledge to create wounds, prosthetics, and realistic sculptures and props for film production.

Education

Advanced Special Effects, Prosthetics, and Prop Making

January 2026- Graduating December 2026

Sheridan College, Oakville, Ontario

Introduction to Special Effects Makeup

January 2024-April 2024

Cosmetic Techniques and Management Diploma

September 2020- Graduated April 2022

Durham College, Oshawa, Ontario

- Achieved Honour Roll with a 4.0-grade point average.

Skills

- Creates realistic wound moulds and skin textures for prosthetic applications
- Displays an excellent understanding of anatomy and skin tones to recreate human body parts and creature sculpting.
- Excellent understanding of safety protocols when using moulding and casting materials
- Excellent communication skills verbally with a team and with face-to-face planning

Work Experience

Ardene Visual Key Holder

May 2022- October 2025

Pickering, Ontario

- Performs excellent communication skills within the team and with customers
- Demonstrates responsibility and productivity, creating displays and helping lead a team
- Demonstrates problem-solving skills to meet the needs of all parties involved

Certificates

- Workers Health and Safety Centre-Working at Heights, May 2026
- Canadian Red Cross- Standard first aid and CPR/AED Level C, January 2026
- WHMIS Certified, January 2026